ORGANIZATION FOR HUMAN BRAIN MAPPING GLASS BRAIN AWARD

A lifetime achievement award in the field of human brain mapping

Dear OHBM Member,

The Organization for Human Brain Mapping has established an award to recognize lifetime achievement by leading researchers using or facilitating neuroimaging to discover original and influential findings regarding the organization and function of the human brain.

Award Criteria

1. Nominee must have been visibly engaged in OHBM activities
2. Nominee must have evidence of extraordinary lifetime accomplishments in the field of human brain mapping
3. The nominee must be over the age of 40
4. The nominee must be present to accept the award given out at the 22nd Annual Meeting of the Organization for Human Brain Mapping being held June 26-30, 2016 in Geneva, Switzerland
5. No self-nominations are allowed

Nomination Process

Nominations for the Glass Brain Award should include a letter of nomination outlining the nominee's lifetime accomplishments as well as an abbreviated curriculum vita (no more than two pages) of the nominee. Additional letters of support are not required but may add to the strength of the nomination. Nominators are required to collate all nomination materials into one single PDF document (no more than five pages total) to be emailed to OHBM at info@humanbrainmapping.org. Please limit the nomination materials to 5 pages. Deadline for nominations is November 9, 2015.

Review Process

The OHBM Council is charged with the selection of the Glass Brain Award recipient and will meet after the submission deadline to review the award criteria and discuss each nominee. The Council will then vote electronically on their top ranked candidates. If needed, the Council will meet again to discuss any split decisions and make a final selection. The award recipient will be notified in April. The award recipient will not be announced until the Opening Ceremonies at the Annual Meeting.

Award

The award recipient will be provided with an OHBM Glass Brain Award, gratis Annual Meeting registration, coach travel and two nights lodging at the host hotel.

We look forward to your involvement in the nomination process. Please contact the OHBM Executive Office at info@humanbrainmapping.org with any questions.

Sincerely,

JoAnn Taie
