

We're now only one month away from this year's annual meeting! If you're still booking travel, you're in luck: The Sustainability and Environmental Action Special Interest Group (SEA-SIG) has secured a 10% discount on train travel to Montreal; see below for details.

Regardless of your travel plans, we hope that this edition of OHBMonthly helps you to remain connected with all of the exciting initiatives going on within our brain mapping community.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth DuPre
on behalf of the OHBM Communications Committee

Traveling to the 2023 annual meeting

Traveling to OHBM2023? There's now even more reason to take the train as VIA Rail Canada has partnered with the SEA-SIG to offer a 10% discount to conference attendees. Enter discount code 14419 at the checkout.

RESTRICTIONS:	Fare applies to a maximum of two passengers per booking. One complimentary stopover is allowed at no additional charge. For travel on all fare plans in Business class, the first stopover is allowed at no additional charge, provided that this stopover takes place in Toronto, Montréal or Ottawa only.
DISCOUNT:	10% off the best available fare in Economy, Economy Plus, Business, Business Plus, Sleeper class. "Subject to the conditions and restrictions of the fare plan to which the additional discount is being applied."
EXCEPTION:	Discount does not apply in any Escape fares and Prestige Class.

Committee and Special Interest Group (SIG) updates

May was another busy month for our Committees and SIGs! Catch up with their work here:

- The OHBM 2023 BrainArt competition "The Multifaceted Brain: Adaptation and Diversity" is now accepting submissions (see attached flyer). Whether you are a scientist making art or an artist interested in the brain, we want to see your artwork!
- This month on Neurosalience, we hear from 2022 OHBM Early Career Investigator Awardee Hirosama Takemura, and in another we hear from 2 senior editors of the new journal Imaging Neuroscience about the future of neuroimaging publishing. Watch here: the OHBM YouTube channel.
- The Diversity and Inclusivity Committee (DIC) Multilingual Kids Live Review events in Italy were a blast! Check out this Tweet from the team. You can find more information on the new DIC website.
- Are you worried about your footprint? The SEA-SIG published a blog post entitled "Tips for an environmentally sustainable OHBM 2023". We hope this guide empowers you to make more environmentally friendly choices as we gear up for the OHBM 2023 conference. Together, we can make a difference!

And watch out for these upcoming opportunities later in June:

- The BrainArt SIG is preparing activities for children in multiple languages to learn about the brain, as well as for this year's BrainArt exhibition at the OHBM 2023 annual meeting. We will announce the details and the registration form soon on social media (Twitter/Instagram) so stay tuned!

Job opportunities

18 new neuroimaging jobs were added to the OHBM job board in May! Here are three recent spotlight positions:

- Postdoctoral researcher @ A.A. Martinos Center, MGH, USA. Brainstem Imaging Lab. Brainstem and neurofluid imaging by high-field and ultra-high field MRI.
- Postdoctoral Fellowship @ Donders Institute, Netherlands. Brain Imaging. Not tied to a particular grant or research project.
- Scientific Programmer @ National Institutes of Mental Health. Sections on Integrative Neuroimaging and Behavioral Endocrinology. Neurobiological impact of puberty on typical brain development .
